

Dear Parents and Friends

Oban

Oban Hawkins has been selected to play for the NZ senior Men's Futsal team. Well done Oban and all the best for the tournament in China.

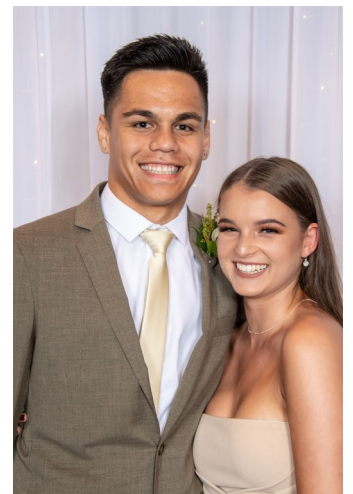

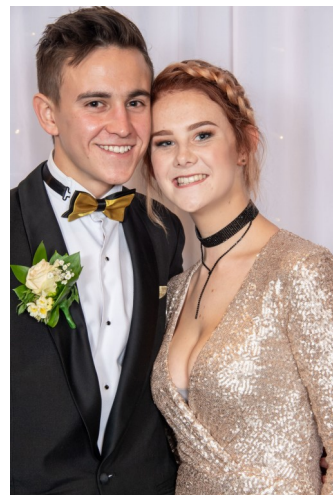

The Ball was yet again a wonderful event and congratulations to all those involved. Our students are wonderful young people and a pleasure to be with. Special thanks to Mrs Reid and Mrs Carr who put a great deal of time into organising the event.

Ms Carr & Ms Reid

Monday 25 June is Day 2

Gateway – Automotive

Rhys Kingi and Ronnin Cowling are enjoying getting to know more about automotive workshops.

Ronnin is placed with ByGone Autos and Rhys is at Pronto Automotive & Tyres; both are in Beach Haven Road.

Please support our wonderful employers without whom we couldn't run the Gateway programme.

NCEA Performance Evening Wednesday 27 June

The Birkenhead College Music Department is having its first NCEA Performance evening on Wednesday 27th June, 5pm in the Brian Gerrard Theatre. We cordially invite the family and friends of performing students along to the event. A reminder for students that it is compulsory for them to remain until the conclusion of the evening, which should be no later than 9pm.

Our star swimmer, Madeleine, needs our help.

A Givealittle page has been created for Madeleine (<https://givealittle.co.nz/cause/synchronised-swimming-competitions>) to help raise funds for her to compete internationally.

They are far from reaching their goal and need our support.

Madeleine is also selling raffle tickets for the WoW festival in Wellington (price: 2 Premium tickets + 250 airpoints) at $10 each. All the money goes toward her expenses.
